

I am strongly opposed to relaxing the current media ownership rules. I feel that this action will give a tremendous increase in power to media giants such as AOL Time-Warner that have been so greatly damaging our economy as of late. Let's not fuel the fire.